

2011 June 4 version – Memorials of Deeds

These are simply my notes of memorials of deeds. Where possible, I have linked them to deeds that I have already transcribed and annotated and posted on to my site. It is a very idiosyncratic list, reflecting my own research needs. In some instances, my notes are not as reliable as the transcriptions done by Nick Reddan and his team of volunteers. The deed material that I gleaned from his site includes the name of the volunteer appended in red.

I am beyond grateful for all those who have helped me with this work.

Louth, leased to John Woods of Lisnisk, gent., "the fourteen tates in the Ballybetaghs of Ballyfremor and Loughwene or one of them". The lease was for lives, renewable forever on payment of a fine of 20 shillings on the fall of each life. The initial lives were John Woods, Rev. Peter Jackson (rector of KillinCool, Co. Louth), and George Jackson, son of Peter , aged 12 years or thereabouts. Yearly rent was set at 150 pounds. <sup>82</sup> By its term of lives renewable forever, this lease automatically gave John Woods a "freehold" in the property, equivalent to ownership in some respects, so that, for example, he and his heirs were eligible to help select parliamentary representatives.

Louth, leased to John Woods of Lisnisk, gent., "the fourteen tates in the Ballybetaghs of Ballyfremor and Loughwene or one of them". The lease was for lives, renewable forever on payment of a fine of 20 shillings on the fall of each life. The initial lives were John Woods, Rev. Peter Jackson (rector of KillinCool, Co. Louth), and George Jackson, son of Peter, aged 12 years or thereabouts. Yearly rent was set at 150 pounds.<sup>82</sup> By its term of lives renewable forever, this lease automatically gave John Woods a "freehold" in the property, equivalent to ownership in some respects, so that, for example, he and his heirs were eligible to help select parliamentary representatives.
